THE ACG AND ITS MISSION

The American Council on Germany (ACG) is a nonpartisan nonprofit organization that was founded in 1952 to strengthen German-American relations. Today, the ACG works across generations to provide a deeper, more nuanced understanding about Germany, Europe, and the importance of the transatlantic partnership. Through a range of programs and activities, the ACG addresses the most pressing economic, political, and social challenges of the day to ensure better mutual understanding. The ACG supports the open exchange of views and builds personal networks among leaders on both sides of the Atlantic by convening regular policy discussions in New York, Washington, and through its network of Eric M. Warburg Chapters; sponsoring exchange programs for young professionals; organizing conferences; and offering outreach on a range of issues affecting the German-American and broader transatlantic relationships.
